AGENDA ITEM/MAYOR AND COUNCIL ACTION	STAFF ACTION
1. Inclusive Home Design Update - Draft ordinance review/discussion Frank Kern, City Attorney's Office and Development Services Department staff presented the Inclusive Home Design Ordinance update. It will go before the Building Codes Committee next week. If there are no major needs for revision, the item will go before the full Mayor and Council on the August 6, 2007 Study Session and then a public hearing in September. If there are issues to deal with, the ordinance will come back before the Subcommittee. Language for the changes regarding elevation needs to be worked out and the waiver will be left at $200 and not be adjusted for inflation.	Development Services/City Attorney's Office responsible
2. VANS Registration Fee Update Ivey Schmitz, Department of Neighborhood Resources, presented a proposal for the Vacant and Neglected Structures Registration Ordinance. There will be a series of stakeholder meetings in late September/early October after which this item will return to the Subcommittee in October with a report on recommendations based on the feedback from these stakeholder meetings. A schedule of the times and dates will be made available to the public and to the Mayor and Council.	Department of Neighborhood Resources responsible
